

Biography

Author /Identity: António Júlio Andrade Rebelo

António Rebelo has been a Secondary School teacher for 36 years; He has been teaching at Rainha Santa Isabel Secondary School in Estremoz since 1984/85.

He got his philosophy degree from the School of Humanities, of Lisbon University in 1981

He got his doctoral degree in philosophy from Évora University in 2014. In this same year he made the public defense of the doctoral thesis: The masks of Human wickedness in Ingmar Bergman- a key to understand a conceptual net of filmic and philosophical approach”

His supervisors were Professors Carlos Melo Ferreira and Olivier Feron.

He has participated in lectures and seminars: Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation; School of Humanities of Lisbon University; School of Humanities of Oporto University; Beira Interior University; Valladolid University, Castilla La Mancha University, with lectures on the philosophy and cinema area.

He has published “A Maldade no Cinema de Ingmar Bergman” Lisboa, Edições Colibri, 2016.